

A Farmer's Farewell

A farmer's farewell, with laughter and cheer,

For you, dear friend, we'll raise a beer,

A life of mud and muck and dirt,

A funny tale, no time for hurt.

You taught us how to laugh and smile,

Even when the work stretched mile by mile,

Your humor kept us going strong,

Through endless days and nights so long.

So, here's to you, our funny friend,

A farmer's farewell, but not the end,

In fields of green, and skies so blue,

We'll laugh, remembering the life of you.
