

A Hero's Legacy

In the storm of your passing, we'll hold you near,
Remembering the love, the life
you held dear,
A great person you were, despite the strife,
In our hearts, your memory, will forever come to life.
With courage and honor, you faced every day,
A testament of love, that'll never fade away,
In the depths of our sorrow, we'll hold you tight,
A hero's legacy, in the darkest night.
A great person they were, in our hearts they'll reside, In the memories we hold, your love will forever guide, Though you've left us behind,
your light will persist,
A hero's legacy, in the hearts that you've kissed.
