

A Hilarious Farewell

Oh, my friend, you left too soon, But I can hear you laughing at the moon,
Your sense of humor, a guiding light,
A life that shined, through day and night.
From silly jokes to puns galore,
You had us rolling on the floor, We'll miss your wit, your laughter sweet,
But smile recalling your comical feats.
In memory, your laughter rings,
A symphony of joyous things, A hilarious farewell, we'll raise a toast,
To a life well-lived, a love that boasts.
