

A Light That Shines

In their brief time, they shone so bright,
A guiding star, in the darkest night,
A child so wise, with a heart so kind,
A soul so rare, so hard to find.
Their love and compassion, a testament true,
To the greatness within, that brightly grew,
A little one's wisdom, a spirit so fair,
Their memory we'll cherish, in our hearts they'll wear.
Through the tears that fall, and the years that pass,
The light of their greatness,
forever will last,
A child so dear, a love so fine,
Their legacy lives on, a light that shines.
