

A Love That Grows

In the garden of our hearts, a love that grows,
A celebration of life, the memory
that flows,
For the child we've lost, a love so strong,
We'll honor their memory,
through the days, lifelong.
We'll plant the flowers, watch them bloom,
In their vibrant colors, we'll find a room,
For the love we shared, the dreams we wove,
A child's life, a treasure trove.
In the sunlight's warmth, the rain's embrace,
We'll celebrate the life, that time can't erase,
A love that grows, a memory that stays,
In our hearts, dear child, you'll forever blaze.
