

Ashes to Life, Love Eternally

As we gather to inter your ashes today,
We celebrate the life you lived, in every way,
The moments of joy, the laughter
and love,
Now you soar, like a dove, high above.
In every sunrise, your light we'll see,
In every sunset, your memory
will be,
The whispers of the wind, the rustle of leaves,
Your spirit remains, our hearts you'll never leave.
Through tears and smiles, we'll honor your life,
A testament of love, through sorrow and strife,
Ashes to life, love eternally,
Your memory lives on, in hearts that are free.
