

Champion of the Game

A champion of the game, both on and off the field,
A heart full of kindness, a spirit that wouldn't yield, You faced life's challenges, with a bat and a smile,
Your courage and strength, inspiring all the while.
In the stands and the pavilions,
your laughter would ring, A testament to the joy, your presence would bring,
A great person, a cricketer, a friend so dear,
Your memory we'll cherish,
throughout the years.
Now you rest, where the cricket stars align,
But your legacy lives on, in hearts and minds,
A champion of the game, forever
adored,
Your spirit, your love, eternally scored.
