

Eternal Brotherhood

A brother is more than just family,
He's a friend, a confidante, and a part of you and me,
And when he's gone, the void he leaves behind,
Is one that can never be truly defined.
But though we grieve and our hearts may break,
We'll hold on tight to the memories we'll make,
For in his life, he touched so many hearts,
And left a legacy that forever imparts.
Like a brother-in-law that becomes family,
Your love and care extended beyond what we could see,
A friend and brother that we'll always treasure,
In memories that will stay with us forever.
And as we bid farewell, we know,
That in our hearts, your spirit will forever glow,
A light that shines so bright and true,

Guiding us through the darkness to the new.

So rest in peace, dear brother,
And know that your memory will never smother,

For in our hearts, you'll always be,

A part of us, eternally.
