

Eternal Friendship

A cousin, more than just a friend, A bond that time could never bend,
In laughter and in tears we shared,
A love so deep, forever paired.
Now silence lingers, where once we spoke,
A heart that aches, a bond now broke,
I'll miss your touch, your warm embrace,
My dear cousin, an irreplaceable grace.
In quiet moments, I'll reminisce,
The joy we knew, the love I miss,
Yet in my heart, our bond remains,
An eternal friendship, a love unstained.
