

Moments Held Close

In the midst of shadows, I see your light,
The moments we shared, a love
so bright,
I appreciate the time we had,
The laughter, joy, the good and bad.
Your presence, a gift in shifting skies,
A cherished memory, a love that thrives, Though you're gone, your essence stays,
Moments held close, through darkest days.
My dear one, I'll hold so near,
A grateful heart, a love sincere,
For even in darkness, a love shines bright,
An appreciation of life, in memory's light.
