

Shattered Hearts

In the darkness of the night, our hearts were shattered, A loved one lost to violence, our dreams left tattered, Gone too soon, we miss your embrace,
The love that once shone, in the depths of your face.
With every tear that falls, every aching sigh,
We'll remember your love,
reaching for the sky,
In the quiet moments, your memory we'll trace, Wishing to hold you, in a tender,
safe space.
Shattered hearts, a love we'll forever miss,
In the depths of our sorrow, a longing abyss,
Though you're gone, your love
we'll carry,
In our thoughts, dear one,
forever you'll tarry.
