

The Cricketer's Legacy

Upon the green, where battles were fought,
You stood with courage, the victory you sought,
A master of the game, so skilled and true,
Your love for cricket, in each stroke we knew.
We honor your spirit, your passion, your fire, Your dedication, your love, we'll never tire,
Of the memories we shared, the triumphs we've seen, Your legacy lives on, forever to glean.
For in every swing, each ball
that's bowled, We'll remember your heart, the stories you've told,
The cricketer's legacy, forever to cherish,
A love for the game, that'll never perish.
