

A Certain Smile

A certain smile, a certain face
Can lead an unsuspecting heart
On a merry chase
A fleeting glance can say
So many lovely things
Suddenly you know
Why my heart sings

You love awhile
And then you stop
Love is like a faucet
It turns off and on

Love's a spark
Lost in the dark
Too soon, a brand new love comes along

A certain smile, a certain face
Can lead an unsuspecting heart
On a merry chase
And now I know
It's love
That caused your Little smile
That made my Heart go wild

I'm sure I'm in love
