

Because You're Mine

Because you're mine, the brightest star I see Look down, my love, and know this dream was meant for me

The dream that seemed impossible, impossible to me
Because you're mine, the brightest star I see

Because you're mine, the breeze that fans the flame

The flame of love that's burning in my heart Because you're mine, I'll cherish every kiss And hold you close, please tell me you are mine

Because you're mine, the brightest star I see Look down, my love, and know this dream was
meant for me

The dream that seemed impossible,
impossible to me
Because you're mine, because you're mine
