Wake up, Maggie, I think I got something to say to you It's late September and I really should be back at school
I know I keep you amused, but I feel I'm being used
Oh, Maggie, I couldn't have tried any more You led me away from home just to save you from being alone
You stole my heart, and that's what really hurt

The morning sun, when it's in your face, really shows your age
But that don't worry me none, in my eyes you're everything I laughed at all of your jokes, my love you didn't need to coax
Oh, Maggie, I couldn't have tried any more
You led me away from home, just to save you
from being alone
You stole my soul, and that's a pain I can do without

All I needed was a friend to lend a guiding hand
But you turned into a lover, and, mother, what a lover you wore me out All you did was wreck my bed, and in the morning kick me in the head
Oh, Maggie, I couldn't have tried anymore
You led me away from home, 'cause you didn't wanna be alone
You stole my heart, I couldn't leave you if I tried

I suppose I could collect my books and get on back to school Or steal my daddy's cue and make a living out of playing pool
Or find myself a rock and roll band that needs a helping hand
Oh, Maggie, I wished I'd never seen your face You made a first-class fool out of me, but I'm as blind as a fool can be You stole my heart, but I love you anyway

Maggie, I wish I'd never seen your face I'll get on back home, one of these days
